For Itching Eczema,
Old Sores and Piles

"I guarantee my ointment," says Peterson of Buffalo, "to cure eczema; to stop the itching at once and any reliable druggist will cheerfully refund your money if PETERSON'S OINTMENT doesn't do everything I say it will do."
William A. Carley of Franklin, N.Y., is surely a wise man. He writes: "I used PETERSON'S OINTMENT on a little boy suffering terribly with eczema. It did the work."
Then there is Alex. Louttel, a brave fireman of Buffalo, who is glad to write as follows: "I had an old sore on my leg for many years. The best doctors failed. PETERSON'S OINTMENT entirely healed the sore quickly." And from over in Canada comes a letter from A. Blockley, stating: "The best thing I ever hit for itching piles is PETERSON'S OINTMENT." A big box for 35 cents. Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.
Peoples Drug Stores and O'Donnell's Drug Stores, Inc., will supply you.

D. C. VOTES OPPOSED BY MISS BOARDMAN

Believes Commissioners Should Have Floor of Congress, She Tells G. W. U. Women.

Belief that the District Commissioners should be granted privileges of the floor in Congress, but that people of the District should not be given full suffrage, was reiterated by Miss Mabel Boardman, former Commissioner, in an address last night at the thirteenth annual banquet of the Columbian Women of George Washington University, held at the Chevy Chase Club. Miss Boardman urged the women to do all they can to acquaint people throughout the country with the beauties of the National Capital.

Miss Gertrude MacArthur, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., spoke on the work of the organization in Washington. Mrs. Mitchell Carroll discussed art in the Capital, explaining the origin of the designs of some of the buildings here. Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr., welcomed the women on behalf of the board of governors of the Chevy Chase Club. Miss Ruth Ayler gave a skit in the form of a bus tour of Washington, living models posing as some of the statues en route. Miss Elizabeth Peet, president of the society, was toastmistress.

Among those at the guest table, in addition to the officers, were Mrs. Howard L. Hodgkins, Mrs. Merton L. Person, Mrs. E. W. C. A., Mrs. E. Day, Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, Mrs. Henry Wilder Keyes, Mrs. Lyman B. Swormsted, and Mrs. Florence Jackson Stoddard.

JUDGES FROLIC AT BEACH TOMORROW

Cast Off Dignity at Annual Shad Bake--200 Lawyers Will Be There.

Tomorrow will be a legal holiday in the District, so far as the lawyers and judges are concerned. The annual outing and shad bake of the District Bar Association will be held tomorrow at Chesapeake Beach and nearly every lawyer and judge will be on hand for the wildest day of joy in all the year.

The outing is the annual occasion for the judges to cast aside their pose of dignity and have a regular time. Members of the United States Supreme Court, the District Supreme Court, the District Court of Appeals, the Court of Claims, and the Police Court will be among the guests of honor. More than 200 lawyers will be on hand.

Sol Minster's band will enliven the outing with plenty of jazz. There will be no speech-making, as the lawyers want a rest from the usual "hot-air" routine of legal life. A royal feast, prepared under direction of Joseph A. Burkart, chairman of the refreshment committee, will be served. One of the features of the day will be a baseball game, with judges serving as umpires.

The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of Henry W. Sohon, chairman; Alexander H. Bell, reception; Col. James E. Easby-Smith, invitations; Edmund Brady, athletics; George C. Gertman, tickets; George H. O'Connor, music, and Mr. Burkart, refreshments.

MEN TO FORM BRANCH OF CATHOLIC COUNCIL

Organization of a parish unit of the National Council of Catholic Men will take place tonight at St. Paul's parish hall, Fifteenth and V streets northwest, at 8 o'clock.

Admiral Benson is chairman of the committee which called the meeting. Other members on the committee are Patrick J. Huttigan, Andrew I. Hickley, Charles Burke, M. O'Neill, Francis Delaney and E. J. O'Reilly.

Women's Lingerie Blouses,

How in the world can anyone sit down and make blouses by hand at prices that admit of selling them at this price? Well, as a matter of fact, they couldn't under ordinary circumstances.

This is a special purchase brought about by commercial conditions that are too long to relate, the only actually interesting feature being that you can get them at this figure.

Sheer Voiles and Batiste deftly hand-wrought in every part. Notice the amount of hand-drawn design, embroidered dots, hand-made picot edging collar and cuffs.

Tucks are all sewn by hand and the seams are also sewn by hand. Buttons and button-holes done strictly by hand--oh, well, they are ABSOLUTELY HAND-MADE THROUGHOUT and the price is repeated for your reminder--$3.95.
